FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Dear All,

Some time ago now I remember reading a newspaper article written by The Very Revd Dr John Shepherd, the Dean of Perth, Western Australia, in which he looked at the concept of humour.

Now, as someone who loves comedy but who can never remember jokes, I was rather taken with the Dean's article. Indeed, I admire the craft of a former schoolfriend of mine, who now makes his living as a successful, full-time comedian and who is becoming a regular on some of our TV shows.

In his article the Dean suggests some examples of humour to be found in The Bible, and then says this when it comes to the Disciples: 'In Mark, especially, the disciples are a constant source of fun. They are almost always introduced to show how inadequate they are. They are fearful. They don't get the point. They are stupid. They fight over who is the most important. They try to keep people away from Jesus. They betray Jesus. They run away. They deny they ever knew Him. Only slowly do they come to realise His living presence in their lives, despite the assurances Jesus had given them'.

Strong words, and the Dean later makes reference to ecclesiastical life and our apparent 'propensity for pomposity. The absurd seriousness with which we so often take ourselves. Our insularity [and] our pretensions to infallibility in matters of faith and morals. After all,' he asks, 'what is the essence of holiness? And how do we recognise it in others?'

It is a challenging piece of writing, and it has challenged me to think about holiness and ourselves. What makes for holiness? What are we to do to follow God more closely? The Dean claims that in order to find out about God we are advised to seek out those with a sense of humour, for they are able to acknowledge and show concern for a 'world of hunger and cruelty and homelessness and tragedy' and yet also discern a basis for hope and courage with which to build a better future. That is, in the midst of everything that life might throw at us, God's love is constant, present and eternal. Not always a laughing matter, but a promise that can help us to raise a smile.

With my love, prayers and best wishes to you all.

Adrian Smith

Knowledge and Wisdom

There is a difference between knowledge and wisdom.

Knowledge is knowing that a tomato is a fruit not a vegetable.

Wisdom is knowing not to include that tomato in a fruit salad.

BISHOP OF LINCOLN'S LETTER

Dear friends,

July is traditionally the time when we go on - or are just about to go on - holiday; and if you are fortunate enough to be going away on a break I hope you have a lovely time and come back refreshed and restored.

Our word "holidays" comes, of course, from "Holy Days". Before the industrial revolution and the Factory Acts of the 19th century, the only time off from work was on a Holy Day (Sunday, Christmas Day and Good Friday). I think the linking of "Holy Days" and "holidays" is more than mere coincidence. I think we can learn from what those early holy days meant to show us how to enjoy our holidays.

First of all a Holy Day meant rest: rest from the daily round of chores and looking after animals and crops. Each village had its own special holy days of celebration (usually to do with the patron saint of the parish church) so that travelling entertainment could plan an itinerary and arrive to liven up proceedings in the form of a fair or a troupe of players. And we all need rest.

Secondly, on a Holy Day God connects with us through a church service: God touches and refreshes us through Word and Sacrament. Similarly, on our holidays we are refreshed again. No longer tired and worn out we are refreshed and ready to return to our usual daily way of being.

Thirdly, and finally, on a Holy Day we remember how God in Jesus brought into being a new creation. So on our holidays we enjoy re-creation - doing something different, something enjoyable and fun, so that we are renewed. This moves beyond refreshment to seeing things differently and from a new perspective. And we are often enabled to see new ways of tackling the opportunities and challenges of daily life.

Sunday is our primary "Holy" day, of course, so I hope that even if you are not able to go away on holiday this summer, you will find a time each week for rest, refreshment and recreation, so that you can engage with the warp and weft of normal daily life afresh.

With every good wish,

+Christopher Lincoln:

HACKTHORN & COLD HANWORTH

HACKTHORN C. OF E. PRIMARY SCHOOL

This is the time of year when Y6 children from across the county take part in the church schools' festival which is held in the cathedral. It just goes to show how many children there are in the world when you realise that over 300 pupils attend each day over the course of 2 weeks. Our group were described as perfect ambassadors for the school and they showed great interest in the demonstrations of candle making and bee keeping, as well as giving their tour-guide a rigorous testing of his knowledge of the cathedral!

Key Stage 1 also did us proud when they went on a visit to the museum of Lincolnshire life. Apparently they were so well behaved that the nice lady at the entrance had forgotten that there was a school party visiting! They had first-hand experience of what a Victorian school room lesson would have been like - including the bit where you had to pay for the lessons! There was also a collection of old toys to look at as well as the opportunity to suggest uses for various artefacts which they were given to examine and explore.

We had lots of preschool children come to visit us with their teddies for the teddy bears' picnic afternoon, where they had a fantastic time playing games and learning a little it about life in the 'big school'. Once again we have to say a big 'thank you' to all our younger pupils who did a fantastic job of making everyone feel welcome and at ease during their visit.

The School Fair will be held on the 19th July at 3:30 - 5:00pm, where there will be all sorts of games and stalls organised. Will we be able to hold it outdoors this year? Only time will tell.

Contact the school on 01673 860295 to arrange a visit or to request a School Brochure or visit our website at www.hackthorn.lincs.sch.uk

HACKTHORN AND COLD HANWORTH SOCIAL CLUB

The Annual General Meeting was held on Friday 22nd March, 2013 at the Village Hall.

The Club has had a successful year with a rise in membership and enjoyable social events:
The Christmas Draw, a Curry Night, two Quiz evenings and two Social Club Trips to Whitby and York were all well attended and we look forward to more of the same in the year to come.

The club meets every Friday between 8pm and 11pm in the Village Hall and we are always delighted to welcome new members. We actively encourage attendance from all people within the community to include families with children.

In order to ensure a safe and enjoyable environment for all club members, parents are required to ensure that their children are supervised at all times.

Annual subscriptions remain at just £5 per couple or £2.50 for single membership. Subscriptions for 2013-14 are due and should be paid as soon as possible.

Mrs Andrea Ryder of Hackthorn was appointed at the AGM as the new club secretary.

Thanks were expressed to the many villagers who have provided their own time to ensure the smooth running of the club. Through these peoples efforts the club continues to thrive as the social focal point of our beautiful village.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

While waiting to pick up a friend at the airport, I had one of those life-changing experiences that you hear other people talk about - the kind that sneaks up on you unexpectedly. This one occurred no more than two feet away from me.

Straining to locate my friend among the passengers coming through arrivals, I noticed a man coming toward me carrying two light bags. He stopped right next to me to greet his family.

First he motioned to his youngest son (maybe six years old) as he laid down his bags. They gave each other a long, loving hug. As they separated enough to look in each other's face, I heard the father say, "It's so good to see you, son. I missed you so much!" His son smiled somewhat shyly, averted his eyes and replied softly, "Me, too, Dad!"

Then the man stood up, gazed in the eyes of his oldest son (maybe nine or ten) and while cupping his son's face in his hands said, "You're already quite the young man. I love you very much, David!" They too hugged a most loving, tender hug.

While this was happening, a baby girl (perhaps one or one-and-a-half) was squirming excitedly in her mother's arms, never once taking her little eyes off the wonderful sight of her returning father. The man said, "Hi, baby girl!" as he gently took the child from her mother. He quickly kissed her face all over and then held her close to his chest while rocking her from side to side. The little girl instantly relaxed and simply laid her head on his shoulder, motionless in pure contentment.

After several moments, he handed his daughter to his oldest son and declared, "I've saved the best for last!" and proceeded to give his wife the longest, most passionate kiss I ever remember seeing. He gazed into her eyes for several seconds and then silently mouthed. "I love you so much!" They stared at each other's eyes, beaming big smiles at one another, while holding both hands.

For an instant they reminded me of newlyweds, but I knew by the age of their kids that they couldn't possibly be. I puzzled about it for a moment then realized how totally engrossed I was in the wonderful display of unconditional love not more than an arm's length away from me. I suddenly felt uncomfortable, as if I was invading something sacred, but was amazed to hear my own voice nervously ask, "Wow! How long have you two been married?

"Been together fourteen years total, married twelve of those." he replied, without breaking his gaze from his lovely wife's face. "Well then, how long have you been away?" I asked. The man finally turned and looked at me, still beaming his joyous smile. "Two whole days!"

Two days? I was stunned. By the intensity of the greeting, I had assumed he'd been gone for several weeks – if not months. I said almost offhandedly, hoping to end my intrusion with some semblance of grace (and to get back to searching for my friend), "I hope my marriage is still that passionate after twelve years!"

The man suddenly stopped smiling. He looked me straight in the eye, and with forcefulness that burned right into my soul, he told me something that left me a different person. He told me, "Don't hope, my friend… decide!"

Glentham Village Garden Tour: 11 June 2013

The tour of the village started at Chimneypots, where Ian welcomed a small gathering of members who were shown around well set out vegetable plots, and flower beds that were just coming into bloom. All of these may take some beating at the summer produce show. Next on route we were all invited to Ian and Kaele's cottage garden. Many hours of hard work have gone into this garden to bring it from a wild unattended expanse of grass to what it is today, with its raised beds and fruiting areas. Next on route a small first year attempt at vegetable, flower and greenhouse growing at Trevor and Val's, hoping for fame at the show. Onward to Irene's tucked away in a small corner of the village close to the beck. Well established flowers and bushes, with a brolly of mature trees made this a pleasant area to visit. Onwards to the last but by no means least of our garden visits, this planned but cleverly laid out expanse of woodland with its hidden grottoes and quirky features was a pleasure to visit, tended by its present owners Terry and Merv, who kindly laid on refreshments. The gardens were a testimony to all the interest and gardening skills we have in the village. We therefore hope to see you all at the produce show.

Best regards

Trevor Jones - sec. Glentham & District Garden Club.

INGHAM PRACTICE

The Practice is delighted to announce the results of the National Quality Indicators 2012/2013 for which an outstanding 99.2% has been achieved. Dr Sultan would like to thank the Practice Team for this exceptional achievement and the patients for their continued support.

The Practice is also very pleased with the excellent results of the Practice Patient Satisfaction Survey 2012/2013 with an outstanding 95% satisfaction rate. The Practice Team will continue to provide a dedicated, caring and responsive service aiming for even greater achievements.

Full details and more information regarding the Practice Achievements and Patient Survey are on display in the waiting room at the Ingham Practice and on our website www.inghampractice.com

The Ingham Practice continues to offer patients same day access to a GP in the open morning surgery and additional same day appointments in the afternoon and we appreciate patients' understanding and patience for the wait, particularly in the morning as we have no control over the numbers attending.

The Practice is now offering an in-house NHS Physiotherapy service for the convenience of patients.

We are pleased to extend the range of our over the counter medicines available for our local community.

Dr Sultan and the Practice staff would like to thank the Ingham Patient Participation Group (IPPG) for their involvement and support and would take this opportunity to invite interest from patients joining the IPPG.

WELTON HEALTH CENTRE NEWS

Last year we surveyed patients about our appointment system and in particular the open access surgeries we have been running between 11 - midday for many years. We discussed the results with our Patient Group and as a result agreed that we would move this surgery to start earlier in the day. It has not been possible to implement this due to maternity leave so far, but we are now planning to start these changes on Monday 2nd September.

Each weekday morning we will run a surgery for anyone who turns up between 8.30 - 9.00am for acute problems and they will be seen by one of the doctors or nurse practitioner. This surgery is not for regular reviews of long term conditions, medication reviews, or multiple problems. The aim is to enable anyone who feels the need to see a doctor on that day, due to an acute illness or problem, to be able to do so. Anyone attending after 9.00am who needs to be seen will be referred to the duty doctor on call, who may call the patient to discuss the matter on the telephone or offer an appointment slot, depending upon the circumstances. Booked appointments with all doctors will then run during the day from 11am.

We aim to increase the amount of pre-bookable appointments offered to patients by the introduction of this system and also hope to allow online booking for those who are interested in making appointments this way. We hope this will also alleviate some of the problems of patients trying to get through to the surgery when the 'phone lines open and give options to those who wish to see a doctor before going to school or work in a morning. Appointment slots will be released for booking up to four weeks ahead and also 48hrs in advance as well as a small number on the day. In addition, we are offering more telephone consultation slots which may be pre-booked as feedback suggests this is a valued service for patients.

We are also introducing more doctor and nurse led clinics for the on- going management of long term conditions and increasing the availability of smoking cessation support and phlebotomy clinics. To ensure that routine reviews of long term conditions (e.g. diabetes, hypertension) are carried out appropriately, patients are required to attend prior to their appointment for routine blood tests so that they may be discussed at the review appointment.

More details will be available in the surgery throughout the summer months and we welcome feedback from patients once introduced.

WELTON PATIENT AND DOCTORS ASSOCIATION

Plans for the Autumn Fayre are progressing and, although October seems a long way, it will be here before we know it! The Fayre is to be held on Saturday 12th October in Welton Village Hall commencing at 2pm.

We have some exciting new games and stalls planned and there will be further news in the next magazine.

If anyone is interested in hiring a table, at a cost of £5, to sell their own items, please contact Roy Minnitt (860980) or myself (862570) to add your name to the list. We will aim to get a good variety of sale items and will notify you during August if your request to hire a table has been successful.

We will be collecting donations of bric a brac, books, tombola items etc nearer the time. Please let me know if you are unable to deliver them to the hall on the morning of the 12th and I will arrange collection.

We are also looking for donations for the bottle and glass tombola and any 'in date' grocery items to guess the value of the shopping trolley contents. Donations of cakes for our cake stall would also be welcome!

If anyone would like to donate a raffle prize please let me know. Perhaps you have a business or service which you could offer for the raffle?

Last year we raised an impressive £2064 including £1144.60 from the sale of raffle tickets. We are hoping to improve on those figures this year and I'm sure, with your help and support, we can achieve that goal.

"Brian Appleton's History of the World in 3 Darts"

Brian Appleton, Selly Oak's most bitter man-rock musicologist and part-time lecturer in Media Studies, takes to the road with a brand new tour after a lengthy absence. Brian is the creation of Graham Fellows - the man behind comedy legend John Shuttleworth and Goole concreter Dave Tordoff. Brian Appleton's history of Rock'n'Roll was made into a BBC Radio 4 series. Brian will be looking into some major historical moments and characters and providing answers that even Terry Deary can't fathom! He will also be performing some of his greatest hits, such as My Turn to be Poorly - the song that inspired Morrisey to create The Smiths!

The Broadbent Theatre is proud to be hosting Brian Appleton's PREVIEW SHOW prior to going to the Edinburgh Festival. Brian wants you to pay no more than £6 since it's this show's very first performance in front of an audience.
